Shaw-Garrison Suit Put Off

NEW ORLEANS, May 24 (AP) — United States District Judge Frederick J. R. Heebe postponed indefinitely yesterday Clay L. Shaw's $5-million damage suit against District Attorney Jim Garrison. Judge Heebe gave no reason for the continuance, but said it was agreeable to both parties. Mr. Shaw's suit charges that his constitutional rights were violated as a result of a conspiracy by Mr. Garrison and several others to persecute him.
